Deewaar is a 2004 Indian Hindi-language action thriller film written and directed by Milan Luthria and starring Anurag Kashyap, Milan Luthria and Amitabh Bachchan. A fictional account of the partition of India, it was inspired by the 1971 Indo-Pakistani war. The story takes place in the fictional town of R.B. Puram, where four young men—Preeti's Hindu friend, a Muslim boy, a Hindu man, and an Indian soldier—become entangled in a richly detailed narrative of violence, death, and romance. Released in December 2004, Deewaar was a moderate success at the box office. It has been cited as one of Bollywood's best films. Its plot was said to be inspired by The Lady Vanishes.
