
Accounting A Smart Approach Mary Carey

accounting a smart approach mary carey. Traditionally, when a bank has a loan that needs to be paid, it can be repaid for a monthly payroll fee. This payroll fee is a small amount that is applied to every bank's cash receipt for each month of the loan. Financial institutions can also have a loan to be paid over a 3-month or 6-month period. This is the difference between a monthly fee and a 3-month fee. You can also pay a 3-month fee to a bank which has an interest on the loan that needs to be paid.
