It is a Flash-based romhack using Flash Player 10+; it runs almost entirely in the browser, without installing any Flash ActiveX controls. When launched, it simulates a PC Super Smash Bros.. Super Smash Flash 2 0.9b adds new parts of gameplay, like a new feature called "Matching", that allow players to find players without entering play mode. It also adds a replay functionality that allow you to replay the game without loads of data, and when you finish playing a game, you can save it, and it will be loaded automatically next time you play, and there will be no more prompts. Also, when you play a game, your SSF2 0.9b game data is saved in a file called "save.html", in the same folder where the index.html file is, and you can play it without annoying prompts telling you to "save your game before you continue", and you can load it again without prompts either. Finally, you can "Share" data to other players, thus not sharing players' data. Mar 1, 2012 Version 0.9b is the second revision of the ninth major release and final alpha revision of the Super Smash Flash 2 Demo.
