As a child, for the first time, I thought: why not become a musician? The parents of my school friends, not realizing their desires, sent me to a music school, and after graduating from it, I became a student at the Gnessin Pedagogical Institute, where I studied classical music and choral conducting. In the summer and autumn of the same year, when I came to visit my parents for the second time, they invited me for a summer vacation. What was to be done? His father worked and he had to feed his family. And then my friend suggested to me: Listen, do you want to become a traveler? Without hesitation, I agreed to go with him to distant relatives living in a village in the Kaluga region. The fact is that childhood friends of my parents were very fond of traveling and were known as avid travelers. Father often asked where we should go next time, knowing my silent and, unfortunately, childish addiction to traveling to distant lands. I agreed. Thus began my further life. But happiness does not last long, and my family ended up without me. I had to spend two years in all conceivable and inconceivable places. At first I worked at a construction site, then I guarded the apartment of one of my school friends. These were years without much adventure, but I continued to dream of leaving. Finally I received word from my father that he was on the road again. I begged a friend, and he got a ticket to some boarding house. Upon arrival, it turned out that I was invited to work
