Gmailer (Final 2022)

With a few clicks you can send an email from Gmail as fast and simple as using your desktop mail client. Gmailer also syncs contacts, calendars, tasks and documents between all your computers, making it an ideal tool for business email. You can also send and receive instant messages over IM networks, to people both on the Internet and on your local computer network. You can even choose your favorite pictures and videos to add to your email messages. You can also share your folders with others, by emailing them your favorites folder. Using the inbox, you can monitor messages in a quick way, as you can read, archive, delete or label messages simply by clicking on the inbox icon. With Gmailer you can send instant messages with many other IM programs on your computer, such as Yahoo! Messenger. You can also use the calendar to organize your tasks, or the contacts section to sync your address book across all your computers.
