The competition is a part of Project Mail Art's 31 Years of Mail Art Initiative, with the goal of inspiring youth to take creative initiative, share creative ideas and express their own creative voice through mail art and other self-initiated art forms. This year, 39 schools from across the United States participated in the National School Mail Art Poster Competition, and the winners' compositions and designs are both beautiful and unique. Congratulations to the first place winner, Sariah J., and thank you to all the participants for their creative contributions./// /// Copyright (c) 2016 Dropbox, Inc.
