Terjemahan Mukasyafatul Qulub Pdf Pdf Download a review of the record, we find that the ALJ properly found that the elimination of the forty hours of work per week in the opinion section of the 1992 Form EAJA application was a substantial overstatement of time expended by Ms. Sumner, given that the same section of the form stated that she had worked since 1989 and had prepared the application over the last two and one-half months. After careful review of the record, we find that the ALJ did not abuse his discretion in finding that the time expended by Ms. Sumner in pursuing her case was substantially excessive for the standard of review requested. Therefore, the ALJ properly disallowed the hours claimed by Ms. Sumner. B Under the EAJA, 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(1)(B), a prevailing party is entitled to an award of reasonable attorney fees, costs, and expenses in any civil action brought by or against the United States unless the court -4- finds that the position of the United States was substantially justified or that special circumstances make an award unjust. The burden of proving that the government was not substantially justified in defending the action lies with the party challenging the government's position. See Roberts v. Chater, 99 F.3d 626, 631 (8th Cir. 1996). A position is substantially justified if there is a reasonable basis in truth for the facts asserted. See Adams v. Barnhart, 237 F.3d 934, 938 (8th Cir. 2001) (citing Pierce v. Underwood, 487 U.S. 552, 565 (1988)).
