ThunderSoft GIF Converter is a powerful toolbox for processing various types of actions related to your GIF files. It packs several applications, each with its specialized purpose. Convert GIF to other formats Some of these utilities help you convert GIF (and some other formats) to video or graphic files that you can open later on without any sophisticated third-party software. For instance, you can create SWF animations or videos with the extension you prefer: AVI, MP4, WMV, MKV, FLV, MOV or MPG. You can also customize the video encoder, frame rate, bit rate, speed and size. Also, you can overlay an image logo to further personalize the result (the position can be either one of the default variants or one that you manually define).

Alternatively, you can extract the frames from your GIF files and save them as BMP, JPEG or PNG. Regardless of the type of conversion you are interested in, you can choose the default filename and the target folder, as well as modify the quality level as you see fit.
