When I try and use the Elasticsearch query, I get an exception. org.apache.solr.common.SolrException:org.apache.solr.handler.component.FlexibleMoreLikeThisComponent can not be found I am new to this. I looked at the imports and found this: import org.apache.solr.handler.component.FlexibleMoreLikeThisComponent; When I hover over it in IntelliJ, it says it's org.apache.solr.handler.component.FlexibleSearchComponent, but I'm not sure I'm importing the correct package. How do I import this package? And how do I use it? A: It's org.apache.solr.handler.component.FlexibleSearchComponent which is a deprecated component in Solr 6. It is the replacement of org.apache.solr.handler.component.FlexibleMoreLikeThisComponent. If you want to use Elasticsearch API, it requires version 6. They stated it would be deprecated in the Elasticsearch 6.1 release announcement, but they gave the deprecation date as April 2018. You can check the migration documentation. So you should migrate to 6.1. If you follow the fashion industry, you already know about the shift to sustainable fashion. And, just in case you missed the big news from 2018, Italian
