Putin told reporters Thursday that an autopsy and DNA analysis of the cadaver confirmed Ilyushin died of heart failure at the hospital where he was treated after undergoing a heart procedure in June. The Kremlin said Wednesday that an autopsy had been ordered as part of an investigation into the cause of Ilyushin's death at age 77, though Putin himself said he had been informed of the results late on Wednesday night. Putin on Thursday praised Ilyushin as "an outstanding statesman" who was "a great patriot" and "a moral personality" who had "a tough character" and "characteristic virtues." VANCOUVER, Canada — A soccer player who received a four-month suspended prison sentence for stabbing a man has been released on bail, though he's not allowed to leave the country. Paolo Hall, 29, was released from a B.C. prison on Sunday after serving his sentence in the community, his lawyer said. The Vancouver Whitecaps confirmed his release and that he will remain on bail. Hall was charged with attempted murder in March after the 25-year-old man was stabbed at a
