S&T Games: Facebook | Twitter | Youtube | Website (in Japanese) Limited Edition Hardcover of the Pixel Guardian. From the Pixel Guardian web comic: As an advanced civilization, we have learned to harness the technology to our cause and we have taught our children that they are the new gods. Our governing classes have distinguished themselves in the art of the philosophical duel, constantly at odds with each other, for supremacy. Beyond this, we recognize no

While there are many noble exceptions, young people have little to look forward to. Work is a necessary evil for most, the skill required to make their lives bearable, frustrating, and passing quickly. Those who can claim the distinction of being born into a noble family are expected to serve the state in one capacity or another for the rest of their lives. We drive in our cars and see people scurrying and running away, we sit at a table with our friends and eat cheap, over-processed food. We feel the streets and sidewalks with our feet, we watch at a distance and sleep in tidy rooms. All but the children are surrounded by their aunts, uncles, and guardians. The injustice of the world is all too obvious. But when we step into the darkness, we get a glimpse of the truth. The world we live in is a world of license
