The smell of eggs frying, to be exact. There is a big yellow bowl full of soft scrambled eggs, and four small china bowls of fresh raspberry jam and a container of the best lemon cookies anyone could ask for. There’s a plate of fresh spinach, frozen berries, a bowl of sliced apples, and a mini-muffin tin, and that’s the last we see of the table before we all rush back upstairs to our rooms to call our friends and families, sing “Happy Birthday,” and drink from the bowls of jam. It all seems like a crazy way to celebrate a birthday, and that’s exactly what Kristine had in mind. “The idea was to make it as special as possible, and something that would be easy and relaxing for us.” Kristine, Alison, and Daniel Deb, Kristen, Brian, Ellen, and Kristine “Kristine and Alison put together the whole thing,” Brian tells us, “and we all dressed up for the occasion.” The daughter, Alison, 25, surprised her parents with a single red rose wearing a French corset, and her brothers, Brian and Erik, surprised their mother with their choice of birthday gifts. Ellen arrives with the birthday cake. They brought the cake to their mother while she was resting. “Kristine, Alison, and Erik all sang a song,” Brian explains, “and Kristine lit candles in the cake and passed it around.” Their parents, Brian and 648931e174
