Field of the Invention The present invention relates to an open/close operation control method for a roof of a vehicle, an apparatus for controlling the open/close operation of a roof of a vehicle, and an open/close operation control program for a roof of a vehicle. 2. Discussion of Related Art One of the occupants of a vehicle may unintentionally open the roof during driving, causing rain, snow, or the like to enter the vehicle. In order to prevent such a problem, a mechanism for detecting that the roof has been opened and regulating the driving of the vehicle by, for example, automatically stopping the engine or stopping the ignition switch is proposed (for example, refer to Japanese Unexamined Patent Application Publication No. 2003-357138 (JP-A-2003-357138)). However, according to the mechanism in which the user operates the opening/closing handle of the roof in order to open and close the roof while the vehicle is running, an additional device such as an opening/closing handle for the roof is required, causing the roof to be complex. Thus, it is an object of the present invention to provide an open/close operation control method for a roof of a vehicle, an apparatus for controlling the open/close operation of a roof of a

Presidential candidate Hillary Clinton was informed last Friday that she will be under investigation for wrong-doing, reported The Washington Free Beacon. The news comes from sources who spoke to the newspaper anonymously. The questions put to Hillary Clinton and her entourage that prompted the Department of Justice to open an investigation into her role in the selling of U.S. uranium to a Russian company. An FBI letter dated August 2nd warns Hillary Clinton and her aides that she and the former State Department counselor Cheryl Mills will be investigated for their role in selling a large amount of U.S. uranium to a Russian company that happened to donate $2.35 million to the Clinton Foundation during Hillary's tenure. The letter states: "We have reason to believe that a corporate policy or business practice of your client may have violated the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA), based on the nature of the allegations." The letter goes on to state that President Barack Obama has ordered an investigation into the dealings of the Clinton Foundation. "The Department of Justice, the FBI and the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia has been directed to investigate and to report on whether a corporate policy or business practice of your client violates the FCPA," the letter says. "I hereby refer to you the enclosed investigative file that details and summarizes the information that has been developed in this matter," the letter continues. "We will provide this information to you as soon as possible for your use as you see fit." Uranium one, Bill, and the Clinton Foundation's corrupt trifecta of gifts, favors, and influence peddling. This story is similar to the Joe Biden investigation that surfaced last month. The FBI informant had been in the middle of a $1.5
