She used to say, “You’re a princess, daughter. You’re a princess.” Sounds great, right? The word “princess” has such a sweet, beautiful sound to it. I remember enjoying how it sounded in my mother’s mouth when she said it. She would also use it when I was in trouble and she was worried about me. I especially liked the word when I was really in trouble. “Cinderella” had a very clean, simple sound to it too. I always wanted to call my mom “Cinderella”. Like my mom, I heard the word “princess” and “princess” in the words Cinderella and “Cinderella”. In both of these words, you were sure to be a princess. In the song “Baby, it’s cold outside”, the chorus goes, “Baby, it’s
