The rise of the Elden Ring is a result of the legendary fight between two countries, the Golden Land and the Red Land, in the lands in between. In the Golden Land, people believe that they are a gift from gods, while in the Red Land, people believe that they are born as humans. A legion of strange beings made up of magic and broken technology appeared in the lands in between, which is now ruled by a few of these beings. Not knowing the destiny of the lands in between, a deep conflict has arisen among the people,
