Update your Garmin GPS device with the latest firmware version , but the scene had become too intense. I called it an early day. I hadn't eaten lunch, and I still needed to find lunch. As I drove away from the funeral home, I saw a small stream of people moving in a slow stream down the street. At first I thought it was a family coming home from the funeral of a relative. But it didn't look right. Then I began to see figures standing out against the dark, dark trees. In their hands they carried great tins filled with corpses. I slammed on my brakes, made a sharp turn, and hit the gas. I wanted to go in the opposite direction. If I were to die, I didn't want to see what was ahead. I knew that the area was haunted. It didn't take me long to find the graves. There were several rows of headstones, each with a tiny inscription. They were all named Frank. The bodies were stacked neatly beside the
