Creanga De Aur James Frazer Pdf 25

25. Woman in historical Romania. The image of the female body in Romanian folklore. 19 James George Fraser, Creanga de aur III, trans. The holiday of Saturnalia of Carpathian origin, celebrated on December 25, was preceded by many centuries. GJ Frazer, Creanga de aur, Ed. Minerva 1980, . 239. In Romania, there were also women who were members of the council of elders of the clan, who were called "majusca" (stepmother) and "majestica" (good mother), which was the opposite of the concepts adopted in other parts of Europe. "Majura" ("Mother of Sorrows"), also in some regions of Romania, is "majusca". "Majura" in its original meaning in Romanian was one of the words used to refer to mother. "Majura" is currently used to describe a grieving or deceased mother.
