Category:Computer-aided design software for iOSQ: SQL Server 2005: select where date between dateadd(day, -2, GETDATE()) and GETDATE() I've been looking around on Google but I can't seem to find a good and direct answer to this problem. I'm trying to write a stored procedure where it checks if any of the records are less than 3 days old. My current attempt is this, but it does not seem to work. I'm not very familiar with date functions. DATEADD(DAY, -2, GETDATE()) I'm going to have a lot of records and would like to avoid running a subquery. Thanks for your help! A: Try SELECT * FROM table_name WHERE Created >= DATEADD(DAY, -3, GETDATE()) AND Created Redirecting to constant.SIGKILL.html... location.replace("constant.SIGKILL.html" + location.search + location.hash); Q: Webmin API Backend: how to populate HTML select list from table data I'm trying to update a list of values in a HTML select list using the Webmin API. Here is the HTML file: ff5e5ca8c9
